RULES AND REGULATIONS.

Every resident of the city and county is entitled to a borrower's card.

Application must be made at the Central Library or at one of the Branch Libraries.

Borrower's cards permit the owner to draw two books of fiction or two current magazines, together with as many books of non-fiction as may be desired.

Books may not be taken or returned unless borrower's card is presented.

Immediate notice of change of address must be given.

A card holder is responsible for all books drawn on his card, whether drawn by himself or another person.

Books may be drawn for two weeks unless otherwise marked and may be renewed for another two weeks, if application is made before the book falls due, unless the book has been previously reserved by another person.

Seven-day books are marked "7-day" on the book pockets and may be drawn for seven days only and cannot be renewed. Certain magazines are issued as "3-day" books until they are two months old.

One cent a day is charged for over-due fourteen or seven-day books; one cent a day is charged for over-due "3-day" book.

Fourteen-day books may be renewed by telephone or letter before the books are due. If renewing by telephone or letter, the number of borrower's card, number of book, and date drawn must be given. Letter must reach Library on or before date due.

Music scores, bound or unbound, are issued for two weeks and cannot be renewed. Any number of music scores may be loaned but not more than ten in one folder. The fine on unbound music scores is 2 cents a day for five scores or less; 5 cents a day for six to ten inclusive.

Books may be returned to the Central Library or Branch from which they were drawn by Parcel Post, if borrower's card accompanies the book. The book should reach the Library by the date due, else a fine will be imposed the same as if it were brought in person.

Books may be reserved by filing a postal card obtained at the Library. One cent is charged for the postal, which is mailed as soon as the book comes in.

All new books are shelved in the Open Shelf room, together with many standard works of fiction and non-fiction.

If you do not find what you want in the Open Shelf room or in the catalogues, ask the desk attendant.

In making out a call slip, please put down the number of the book found in the catalogue, also your own card number.
